FOREWORD

The 1975-76 edition of this annual directory lists institutions in the United States and its outlying areas that offer at least a 2-year program of college-level studies in residence or, if nonresident in nature, that are accredited or preaccredited by an accrediting agency recognized for such purpose by the U.S. Commissioner of Education. The requirements and criteria for listing are stated in detail in the introduction.

The information presented for each institution includes its telephone area code and number, address (including the ZIP code), congressional district and county in which it is located, FICE identification code, date established, fall 1974 enrollment, undergraduate tuition and fees, sex of student body (men, women, coed, or coordinate), calendar system, control or affiliation, highest level of offering, type of program, accreditation, names and titles of principal officers, and a coded classification of principal officers by functional area of responsibility.

This publication was prepared jointly by the Accreditation and Institutional Eligibility Staff (AIES) of the Bureau of Postsecondary Education of the U.S. Office of Education and the Higher Education Surveys Branch (HESB) of the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES). AIES had sole responsibility for the certification of the eligibility and accreditation of institutions for inclusion in this Directory; HESB, for all other aspects of the survey on which the publication is based.

We would like to express our appreciation especially to the officials of the institutions of higher education whose responses made the Directory possible, and to the coordinating officials of the State departments of education who assisted in the data collection and the resolution of inconsistencies.

This directory is also available in the form of computer tape which may be purchased from the National Center for Education Statistics by contacting Mr. Robert A. Heintze by telephoning (202) 245-8460. Anyone having questions on the use of this Directory may contact Mrs. Carolyn R. Smith by telephoning (202) 245-8392.

INTRODUCTION

CRITERIA FOR LISTING IN THIS DIRECTORY

This directory lists institutions in the United States and its outlying areas (American Samoa, Canal Zone, Guam, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands) that meet the following requirements: (1) They are legally authorized to offer and are offering at least a 2-year program of college-level studies in residence or, if nonresident in nature, they are accredited or preaccredited by an accrediting agency recognized for such purpose by the Commissioner of Education, (2) they have submitted the information required for listing, and (3) they meet one of the traditional criteria for listing as institutions of higher education.

The criteria for listing in the directory are as follows:

1. Institutions accredited by a nationally recognized accrediting agency or approved 1/ by a State department of education or by a State university are eligible for inclusion.
2. Institutions that have attained a preaccredited status 2/ with designated nationally recognized accrediting agencies are eligible for inclusion.
3. Institutions not meeting requirements of criterion 1 or 2 are eligible for inclusion if it can be confirmed that their credits have been and are accepted as though coming from an accredited institution by not fewer than three institutions accredited by nationally recognized accrediting agencies.

"College-level studies," as the term is used here, means a postsecondary program which (1) is wholly or principally creditable toward a baccalaureate degree and/or (2) terminates in an associate degree.

1/ This category includes those institutions designated as approved, accredited, recognized, or registered through State programs which include establishment of criteria, evaluation of institutions, publication of a list of institutions that meet the criteria, and periodic reviews for continued approval. It does not include institutions approved for obtaining or amending a charter, for training veterans, or for enrolling war orphans or foreign students.

2/ See definitions under "Preaccredited Status" on pp. XIII and XIV.

ACCREDITATION

The responsibility for the control or supervision of educational institutions in the United States is not concentrated at any single level of government or in any one public or private body or agency. Varying degrees of control are exercised by each State, but institutions of higher education operate with considerable autonomy and self-governance. Therefore, U.S. educational institutions vary widely in the character and quality of their programs.

A unique feature of U. S. educational practice is the device known as accreditation, which includes voluntary self-evaluation by a school and appraisal by a group of its peers. This process operates through nationally recognized accrediting agencies and associations and certain State bodies. These agencies or associations have established educational criteria to evaluate institutions in terms of their own objectives and to ascertain whether programs of educational quality are being maintained. They provide institutions with continued stimulus for improvement to insure that accredited status may serve as an authentic index of educational quality.

The accrediting procedure consists of five steps: (1) establishment of criteria, (2) a self-evaluation study of the program by the institution seeking accreditation, (3) evaluation of the institution by competent authorities to determine whether it meets the established criteria, (4) publication of a list of institutions that meet the criteria, and (5) periodic reviews to ascertain whether accredited institutions continue to meet the criteria. Institutions accepted by an accrediting agency or association as meeting its criteria are said to be accredited or approved. One of the best available methods of ascertaining the general standing or quality of an institution of higher education in the United States is to examine its accreditation status.

Institutions with liberal arts and general programs and, in some cases, those with special programs may be accredited by one of six regional accrediting associations. Regional accreditation applies to the entire institution. It indicates that each constituent unit is achieving its own particular aims satisfactorily, although not necessarily all on the same level of quality.

The regional associations are indicated throughout this directory by the following abbreviations:

(Note: The symbol # preceding any of the following abbreviations indicates that the institution is provisionally accredited, accredited with some reservation, or approved on probation. The symbol @ indicates that the institution has attained a pre-accredited status.)

NOTE.--Addresses of the accrediting associations just listed can be found in appendix E.

PREACCREDITED STATUS

The customary route for institutions seeking accreditation is to pass through a preliminary stage known as Candidate for Accreditation, which is defined as follows by the Council on Postsecondary Accreditation:

Candidate for Accreditation is a status of affiliation with a recognized accrediting commission which indicates that an institution has achieved initial recognition and is progressing toward, but does not assure, accreditation.

The Candidate for Accreditation classification is designed for postsecondary institutions which may or may not be fully operative. In either case the institution must provide evidence of sound planning, the resources to implement these plans, and appear to have the potential for attaining its goals within a reasonable time.

Professional accrediting agencies that grant preaccredited status use varying terminology to represent satisfactory assurance of the institution's ability to achieve accreditation status within a reasonable time.

ARRANGEMENT OF DATA

Generally, institutions are listed alphabetically under the States in which they are located. A branch of an institution is listed as a unit following the parent institution. When there are two or more branches, the branches are listed alphabetically. When an institution comprises two or more campuses reporting directly to the central administration, the campuses are listed in alphabetical order. Generally, components of multicampus institutions are subsumed under a "central office." Thus, an identification code, as well as a name and address, is provided for the institution as a whole in addition to the individual campuses. Most multicampus institutions reported information on the overall administrative staff; but, when this was not done, the name of the chief administrative officer of the institution (such as the president or chancellor) and his/her business address are listed.

In all surveys and publications related to the Higher Education General Information Survey (HEGIS), institutional systems, multicampus institutions, main campuses, and branch campuses are defined as follows:

Institutional System. A complex of two or more institutions of higher education, each separately organized or independently complete, under the control or supervision of a single administrative body.

Multicampus Institution. An organization bearing resemblance to an institutional system, but unequivocally designated as a single institution with either of two organizational structures: (1) an institution having two or more campuses responsible to a central administration (which central administration may or may not be located on one of the administratively equal campuses) or (2) an institution having a main campus with one or more branch campuses attached to it.

Main Campus. In those institutions consisting of a main campus and one or more branch campuses, the main campus (sometimes called the parent institution) is usually the location of the core, primary, or most comprehensive program. Unless the institution-wide or central administrative office of such an institution is reported to be at a different location, the main campus is also the location of the central administrative office.

Branch Campus. A campus of an institution of higher education which is organized on a relatively permanent basis (i.e., has a relatively permanent administration), which offers an organized program or programs of work of at least 2 years (as opposed to courses), and which is located in a community different from that in which its parent institution is located. Being in a community different from that of the parent institution means that a branch is located beyond a reasonable commuting distance from the main campus of the parent institution.

Institutions that are part of a system are grouped alphabetically immediately following the name and administrative staff of the system. If a system requested an order other than an alphabetical listing, the request was honored. For example, a system that has universities, 4-year colleges, and junior colleges may have requested an alphabetical listing within each level of institution. The name of each branch of an institution or an institution in a system of institutions is preceded by an (*) and printed in a slightly smaller type size.

EXPLANATION OF DATA

FICE Identification Code

The Federal Interagency Committee on Education (FICE) identification code is listed for each institution. This is an unstructured number that is unique for each institution. Except as indicated below, it will remain as the institutional identification number for the life of the institution; should the institution cease to exist, the number will be inactivated.

The primary utility of the FICE identification code is the precise identification of a particular institution of higher education. In addition to this primary use, for purposes of computer records and processing, a FICE identification code is assigned to the aggregate or totality of a multicampus institution or an institutional system. This FICE identification code number is known (somewhat imprecisely) as the "all-campus" number for a multicampus institution or the "all-institution" number for an institutional system. This number permits the National Center for Education Statistics, in the analysis of data, to code the aggregate data for multicampus institutions or systems of institutions. A list of these aggregates and the FICE identification code for each of them is given in appendix J.

There are apparent, but not real, exceptions to the immutability of the FICE identification codes. These apparent exceptions occur when institutions acquire or establish new branches, when established branches are closed or lose branch status, or when institutions are assembled into new systems. Some examples of these exceptions follow:

1. An institution has a remotely located component that for many years it did not consider a branch. Now it accords a separate identity as a branch to this component. New FICE identification codes now are given to the main campus and to the branch; the old FICE identification code assumes a new identity as the "all-campus" code for the total entity. In this way, the historical consistency of the statistical data filed by FICE identification code is maximized.
2. An institution acquires a newly developed and established branch. The old name of the institution now applies both to the old institution and to its new branch. The old FICE identification code is now used to designate the main campus (which is actually the quantitative successor to the old institution); but the new FICE identification codes are assigned to each of the following: the branch, the central office, and the institutional "all-campus" aggregate.
3. An institution closes an established branch. The main campus, which will now be a single institution, retains its FICE identification code number. However, if an established branch loses branch status but is still a component, the now single-campus institution assumes the "all-campus" FICE identification code number.
4. A previously independent institution becomes part of a newly organized system which contains a number of institutions, and the system assumes the name of the previously independent institution. If an analysis of the change demonstrates that historical consistency of statistics will not be served by preserving old FICE identification numbers, some units and aggregates of this new system will receive totally new FICE identification numbers, and the old number of the institution will not be used to identify the new system. This will appear to be a change in FICE code; actually it is not, since the name now describes a new and different entity. On the other hand, if historical consistency and understanding of the data would be served by preservation of the old FICE identification code, it may be preserved by having it now designate that part of the system that previously had the old name.

FICE Classification Code

The Federal Interagency Committee on Education has developed a new system for the classification of institutions of higher education, based primarily on the institutions' emphasis on student levels. This new FICE classification will ultimately replace the present classification of university, other 4-year, and 2-year. However, this replacement will be gradual and the two will exist side-by-side for a number of years. This system is presently under final review in the field.

Date of Establishment

The date of establishment is the year in which the institution came into existence or was chartered. In the event that an organizational change, i.e., merger with another institution, has taken place since that time, the earlier date is used.

Student Body

The sex designation for the student body of each institution or campus included in the directory is shown as men, women, coeducational, or coordinate (separate colleges for men and for women), as reported by the institution.

Several institutions, traditionally for men only or for women only and so listed in the directory, indicated on their reports that, although their enrollments were almost all of one sex, they had an open-door policy for students of either sex. A few added the phrase "on a commuting basis only." Several noted that the reported enrollment included a given number of men or women day students.

Enrollment

The total enrollment of students in each institution or, in the case of multicampus institutions, in each component is given as of fall 1974. Undergraduate and graduate, resident and extension, and full-time and part-time students are included. Excluded are students in noncredit adult education courses; students taking courses at home by correspondence, radio, or television; students enrolled only for "short courses"; auditors; students studying abroad; and students enrolled at a branch campus or extension center of an American institution in a foreign country.

The total enrollment for an institution shown in this directory may differ from the figure presented in the opening fall enrollment publication.* The opening fall figure is reported early in the fall term, and respondents are asked to include estimates for any group of students that should be included but for which an actual count is not available.

An advance enrollment figure for fall 1975 was obtained for newly eligible institutions which did not report fall 1974 enrollment. Institutions that have obtained preaccredited status but were not offering classes this fall would normally be listed in appendix A.

Undergraduate Tuition and Fees

Undergraduate tuition and required fees are the actual charges reported by the colleges and universities and their branches for the academic year 1975-76, not including room and board charges. All fixed-sum charges, which are required of a sufficiently large proportion of all students that the student who does not pay the charge is an exception, are included. If the amount varies depending upon the class level of the student, subject-matter major, or courses taken, etc., the typical or modal amount is estimated for charges which are required. Charges which are clearly optional are not included.

Control or Affiliation

The control or affiliation of each institution is recorded as reported by the institution. Public institutions are those under Federal, State, State-related, local, or State-and-local control. Private institutions are reported as independent, nonprofit; organized as profitmaking; or affiliated with a religious group. Provision was made for reporting affiliation with 71 religious groups, and an "other" category was provided for affiliation not covered by the specific groups named.

Calendar System

The calendar system on which each institution or campus operates is reported as quarter, semester, trimester, 4-1-4 (months) plan, or "other." Any calendar system not classifiable as quarter, semester, trimester, or 4-1-4, is designated "other."

Highest Level of Offering

The following categories have been established to designate institutions by highest level of offering:

Two but less than 4 years--refers to at least 2 but less than 4 years beyond 12th grade; includes junior colleges, community colleges, technical institutes, and normal schools offering at least a 2-year program of college-level studies, either leading to an associate degree or wholly or principally creditable toward a baccalaureate degree.

Four- or 5-year baccalaureate--includes those institutions offering programs of studies leading to the customary bachelor of arts or bachelor of science degree, requiring at least 4 but less than 6 years.

First-professional degree--includes those institutions that offer the academic requirements for selected professions based on programs that require at least 2 academic years of previous college work for entrance and a total of at least 6 years of college work for completion; e.g., medicine (M.D.), law (LL.B., J.D.), theology (B.D., M.Div., Rabbi), dentistry (D.D.S.), veterinary medicine (D.V.M.), osteopathic medicine (D.O.).

Master's--includes those institutions offering the customary first graduate degree, master of arts or master of science degree in the liberal arts and sciences, or the next degree in the same field after the first-professional degree; e.g., Master of Science in Surgery (M.S. in Surgery), Master of Law (LL.M.), and Master of Science in Dentistry (M.S.D.).

Beyond master's but less than doctorate--includes those institutions offering "postgraduate predoctoral degrees"; e.g., civil engineer, electrical engineer, specialist in education.

Doctorate--includes those institutions offering the Ph.D. or its equivalent in any field; e.g., Doctor of Education, Doctor of Juridical Science, Doctor of Public Health.

Undergraduate non-degree-granting--includes those institutions offering at least 4 years of undergraduate work but not conferring a bachelor's degree. Such institutions may give diplomas, certificates of completion, or similar awards.

Graduate non-degree-granting--includes institutions offering work beyond the bachelor's level but not conferring degrees. In some instances, the degrees are conferred by cooperating institutions.

Postdoctoral research only--includes institutions operating solely for the purpose of research at the postdoctoral (post-Ph.D. or equivalent) level.

Type of Program

The designations of the types of programs are explained as follows:

Terminal-occupational below bachelor's--refers to programs of at least 2 but less than 4 years beyond high school designed to provide students with knowledge and skills necessary for immediate employment but for which credits are not ordinarily acceptable toward baccalaureate degree programs.

Two-year principally bachelor's creditable--refers to the first 2 years of college work; i.e., the equivalent of the freshman and sophomore years of the lower division of a bachelor's degree program. Such a program may be general or preprofessional; it may serve as the first 2 basic years toward a bachelor's degree in a liberal arts program, in a teacher preparatory program, or in a professional program.

Liberal arts and general--refers to 4- or 5-year baccalaureate or post-baccalaureate degree programs in the liberal arts and sciences. It may also include preprofessional programs (such as prelaw, prelibrary science, presocial work, and premedicine).

Teacher preparatory programs--as used here, must be of at least 4 years' duration.

Professional programs--as used here, are separate programs of at least 4 years beyond high school, outside liberal arts and organized around a professionally oriented academic discipline. Included are 4- or 5-year degree programs in agriculture, business administration, engineering, etc., as well as those programs leading to the 6-year-or-more first-professional degree defined in the section on highest level of offering.

Administrative Officers

The instructions that accompanied the survey form requested institutions to list only their chief administrative officers; i.e., to limit the list of staff members to key persons. If two or more positions are concerned with the same area of responsibility (e.g., a business manager and comptroller, or a treasurer and comptroller), institutions were asked to list only the higher position. If one person performs more than one function, he or she could be listed only once, in the most important function or a combination of functions (such as registrar and admissions officer). The only instance in which a person should be listed twice is where a chief administrative officer serves also as the dean of a school or college.

XX'

Not all reported officers and titles can be listed in the directory in every instance, due to limitations of institutional entry space and publication size. Every effort is made to list as many functional codes and institutional officers as may be required by directory users.

Assistant deans reported were retained if their functions were not duplicated. For example, a number of institutions reported a dean of students and, in addition, the dean of women as an assistant dean or assistant dean of women. Also, some institutions reported one of their chief administrative officers as dean of college and all other administrative deans as assistants with specific functions, such as assistant dean for student affairs. Assistant deans were deleted if the function was duplicated. For example, when both a dean and an assistant dean of the college of arts and sciences were reported, the assistant dean was deleted.

It will be noted that a numeric coding precedes the title of all administrative staff. This permits these data to serve an additional purpose for those who utilize the directory in the form of a computer tape, and also provides more specific information on the areas of responsibility of the various officers.

The code numbers in question refer to a specific functional description of an administrative officer in a college or university, without regard for the actual title. Thus, whether the chief business officer has the title of vice president for business, or treasurer, or comptroller, or business manager, the code number is 03.

These code numbers and the generic descriptions of administrative functions are drawn from the Manual for Manpower Accounting in Higher Education, Preliminary Edition, by W. John Minter, National Center for Higher Education Management Systems at the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education in cooperation with the College and University Personnel Association, under contract with the U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare/Office of Education.* The pertinent sections of the manual are reproduced in appendix L.

There are two cases in which the numeric coding lacks precision. Where a position is coded 00, this means that the position and the functions of its incumbent are not included in the reference manual, but the position was deemed to be of such importance that listing was required. The other instance is the coding which applies to administrative personnel with a religious orientation, whether heads of instructional units or counselors.

*The codes have been available to the higher education community since the publication in 1972 of the manual by W. John Minter. The codes were re-published in a proposed revision of that manual: A Manual For Budgeting and Accounting for Manpower Resources in Postsecondary Education: Second Field Review Edition, 1975.

The instructions for the survey form stipulated that vacant positions be omitted except for such key positions as Chief Executive Officer (01), Chief Academic Officer (02), Chief Business Officer (03), Chief Librarian (05), Deans/Directors (11-38, 70), Director, Admissions (39), Registrar (64), and Chief Student Officer (08). When other than the usual key positions were reported as vacant, they are not listed.

Deans of schools and colleges within an institution are shown after the administrative officers, except when an institution requested a different order or rank sequence.

METHODOLOGY

The request for information to be published in this directory was included in the Higher Education General Information Survey (HEGIS) package mailed to institutions of higher education or to State agencies that cooperate with the National Center for Education Statistics in data collection, in May 1975. Copies of the form "Institutional Characteristics of Colleges and Universities" were included in the package sent to those institutions that had not been listed in the directory in the previous year. Institutions included in the directory the previous year received a computer printout of their information, with the request that it be updated for 1975-76.

The National Center for Education Statistics has a cooperative data-collection arrangement with 35 States. In 29 of these States, State officials handle mail-out and data collection for all institutions; in 6 States, for selected institutions. In 5 other States, with which NCES has no such cooperative data-collection arrangement, an extra copy of each form to be completed and mailed to the State department of education is included in the packages mailed to specific institutions. This cooperative arrangement reduces the number of requests for data made upon the institutions and improves the response rate for the various portions of the package. Inconsistencies in the completed reports were resolved by contacting the State coordinating officials who in turn contacted the institutions when necessary.

Institutions were requested to supply the information not later than July 15, 1975. Data collection was completed October 2, 1975. Institutions not previously included that had applied for directory listing and that had already filed Institutional Characteristics information are included if they were certified as eligible for listing at any time prior to the closeout of data collection on October 2, 1975.

Each completed report was sent to the Accreditation and Institutional Eligibility Staff (AIES) of the Bureau of Postsecondary Education of the U.S. Office of Education for certification of the institution's eligibility for listing in the directory and for verification of the accreditation reported.

XXIII

Only those institutions certified by AIES as eligible for listing (i.e., certified as meeting at least one of the criteria specified on page IX of this publication) are included.

ABBREVIATIONS

Functional titles of administrative officers were spelled out whenever possible within the limit of the 30 characters allowed. Standard abbreviations were used whenever possible. All abbreviations used are listed in appendix I.

THE CHARTS AND TABLES

In 1974-75, the National Center for Education Statistics began tabulating data on the colleges and universities by identifying and counting separately certified branches as well as their parent institutions; prior to that year, all tabulations aggregated branches with the parent institutions. The previous method of identifying and tabulating institutions provided counts only on the basis of the number of separate institutions (organizations or entities) providing higher education, without regard to the number of branches included in some of the institutions. For example, the University of North Carolina has 16 campuses throughout the State, varying in size and complexity from large branches with a variety of programs including doctoral emphasis to small branches offering only baccalaureate programs. Formerly counted as one institution, the University of North Carolina now accounts for 16 separate reporting units. The current method of reporting each unit separately, and aggregating units on the basis of their characteristics, is considered to be more accurate in that it permits the combination of units with like characteristics without regard for administrative structures.

Table 1 shows the number of institutions and branches from academic year 1969-70 to 1975-76. Charts A and B display trends over the seven-year period. (Note the different scales used.) The data indicate that the growth of 4-year publicly controlled institutions leveled off in 1973-74, while small increases are still in evidence in the private sector. Although the major increases in enrollment are associated with 2-year institutions, the number of such facilities appears to have stabilized.

Tables 2-5 show further data on the 3,055 institutions and branches by the various institutional characteristics. Table 6 presents a summary count of the various professional and national accreditations. Table 7 summarizes the numbers of administrators listed in the body of this directory by their specific definition codes. (Those codes are defined in appendix L.)

Table 8 relates to table 7 in that it includes the number of these administrators who are new to their positions this year and table 8A shows the rate of turnover in the various positions. Table 9 relates to tables 7, 8, and 8A in that the names of the previous and current holders of the chief executive positions at the institution or branch are listed.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. It is recognized that tuition and required fees and room and board charges are not the same for all students at an institution. Therefore, in selecting the single figure that will be most appropriately representative of your institution and comparable to other institutions, please be guided by the following:

a. Include all fixed sum charges which are REQUIRED of such a large proportion of all students that the student who does not pay the charge is an exception. If the amount varies depending upon the class level of the student, subject matter major, the courses taken, etc., estimate the typical or modal amount for charges which are required.

b. Do not include any charges which are clearly optional.

2. Report charges for the ACADEMIC YEAR. The academic year is the period of the regular session, generally extending from September to June, usually divided into 2 semesters, 3 quarters, or 2 trimesters.

3. If the institution has a single lump-sum charge for tuition, required fees, room, and board, please apportion the lump-sum charges among the appropriate categories.

TUITION AND REQUIRED FEES

ITEM A. Undergraduate students are those who have not obtained a bachelor's degree: (1) all students in bachelor's degree programs which require at least 4 years but fewer than 6 years of college work; and (2) all students in occupational or general study programs which require 1, 2, or 3 years of college work and which are designated to prepare for immediate employment, or to provide general education rather than as the first 1, 2, or 3 years of a bachelor's degree program.

ITEM B. Graduate students are those who have attained at least one standard bachelor's degree or first-professional degree and are or could be candidates for master's or doctor's degrees. DO NOT include candidates for the degrees of DSC, Pod.D, DDS, DMD, MD, OE, DO, DVM, LLB, JD, BD, or other first-professional degrees.

ROOM AND BOARD CHARGES

ITEM C. Report as room charge (academic year) the modal charge to a typical student sharing a room with one other student.

ITEM D. Report as the board charge (academic year) the modal charge to a typical student. Please check the number of days per week for which the board charges are applicable (5, 6, or 7).

If your institution makes a combined charge for room and board, please make an estimate of the proportions of the total charge in each of the categories
